

THE AVALANCHE

REPORTER
REPUBLICAN

Published every Thursday, at Grayling.

O. PALMER

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION

FOR ONE YEAR,
FOR SIX MONTHS,
FOR THREE MONTHS.

$5 to $20 per year of time, postage
Portland Maine.

CRAVENFORD AND THE AVALANCHE

O. PALMER,

JUSTICE AND RIGHT.

PUBLISHER AND PROPRIETOR.

VOL. IV.

GRAYLING, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, JULY 27, 1882.

NO. 13.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Our readers will notice a slight
change of time of passenger trains.

night. Go and see them.

Detroit and Bay City daily papers at
the P. O.

leaves at 11:50 and north at 1:35.

A magic lantern concern held forth
at the school house Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Wilson and Yates, of Pere
Cheney, are guests of Mrs. D. Davis.

Mrs. Vincent, of Center Plains was the guest of Mrs. David London over Sunday.

A nice line of boxed stationery at
the P. O.

A. H. Swarthout leaves for Oscoda county to-day to attend to an important law-suit.

Miss Mary Swarthout, of Saginaw,
is visiting at this place, the guest of her brother, H. H. Swarthout.

Mrs. G. E. Harlow, of Leslie, Ingham county, this State, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Martin Johnston, of Pere Cheney.

Ice cream constantly on hand by the dish, quart or gallon, at the bakery
of M. S. Monger, proprietor.

Mr. Mack Taylor went down the Au
Sable Sunday with a party of piscatorial pleasure-seekers. He will be absent about four weeks.

Rev. Mr. Putnam, started last night for a two weeks' visit to his home in Mason. There will, in consequence be no services at the half next Sabbath.

Legal blanks and blank books of all kinds, at publishers' prices, at the P. O.

The long-looked-for nevile-handle
and cant-hook establishment in Maple-Forest started up last Saturday, and is now running full blast. J. P. Hildreth is owner and manager.

The new sail-boat of Messrs. Hadley & Steckert is safely launched, as we can testify, for by the courtesy of Mr.
Hadley we enjoyed a two hours trial trip. She handles beautifully in the wind and is safe in any weather or in any sea. Portage is a diamond and fully appreciated by tourists who visit her shores, and the thanks of our people are due those enterprising gentlemen who add to comfort and convenience of pleasure-seekers there.

As H. C. McKinley, of Grove, was wending his way to this village on Monday morning last, he saw no less than seven deer and a large bear. His bearship stepped out into the road
some two rods in advance of Mac,
who passed the time of day with him,
but the conversation was not prolonged,
as Mac immediately wheeled about
and shacked off towards the hills to the south, deeming it the better part of prudence to let the bear go. This is the practical experience of all,
and how are we to obtain it? We are hardly able to sustain agricultural operations or fair, and the only way that is to let the bear go.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Editor Avalanche:

... your paper is well worth reading.

</